

Attention Realtors!

Looking for a new special “Thank You” gift for your clients?

How about a Mia Bella Gourmet Soy Candle? They’re healthy for the air we breathe, AND they won’t leave a soot residue build-up on your client’s new home!

Mia Bella candles are triple scented and last up to 50% longer than a ‘regular’ candle. What a great idea for your open house (or even at the office) – burn our popular “Hot Apple Pie” candle for that cozy home feeling you want to create!

"As a Realtor, I'm always looking for unique client gifts for open houses and closings. Scent Sations has a fabulous product line and the candles are so richly scented you won't believe it. They surely are better than any other I've tried. The fact that they are environmentally friendly for homes and our health - with easy cleanup - is such a bonus for homeowners. Some home builders these days won't even honor their home warranty if you use soot-filled candles in your home. I don't even have to mention that they are actually for sale as a business opportunity, too...clients ask ME how to spread the word!"
